High School Tuition Support Fund

There is also the Aichi Prefecture High School Supplemental Scholarship Fund to reduce the burden of educational expenses (only for those eligible).

Repayment unnecessary

High School Tuition Support Fund

◎About the High School Tuition Support Fund

This system covers approximately 80 percent of the total number of households, and those identified as eligible households will be exempt from tuition fees for public high schools (repayment unnecessary).

The maximum free-tuition period is 36 months (48 months for part-time and correspondence course students).

Applications are required to take advantage of the system.

As a general rule, applications will be accepted from school entry and considered for approval based on a set of criteria. The households exempt from high school tuition fees, including those with children in their first year of high school, will undergo an income screening in July every year.

In principle, applications will need to be submitted online, starting from those for new students in AY2022*. All households are advised to apply, via smartphone or PC, regardless of whether or not they regard themselves as eligible.

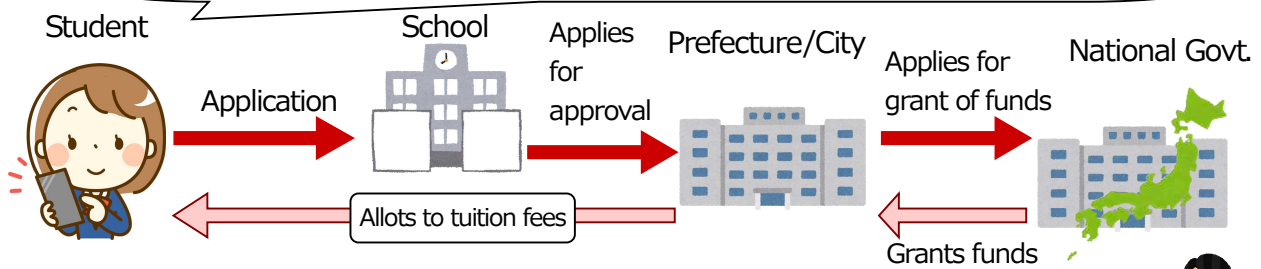

All the necessary information including your ID number and password, as well as registration method will be provided by your child's high school.

- To apply, please visit the website by scanning the QR Code or at the following URL.

<https://www.e-shien.next.go.jp/eshien-s-web/login/login>

* If you are not able to apply online, please contact the office of the high school in which the student is enrolled.

To apply online, simply enter the My Number of the student's guardian in the special form; you will then not need to submit any other documents. Once approved by screening, you will not need to enter the My Number in the next screening in July.

【Eligibility criteria】

Municipal resident tax base x 6% – adjusted deduction
*In ordinance-designated cities (e.g. Nagoya City), adjusted deduction x 3/4
Less than ¥304,200	¥304,200 or more
Approved: No tuition charged	Not approved: Tuition charged

- Households with an annual income of less than approximately 9.1 million yen (assuming a family of four: two parents, one high school student, and one junior high school student) are eligible for this system.

The above income limitation is simply the standard and is subject to change based on the number of dependents, applicable deductions, and other conditions. Households eligible for this tuition support are determined based on their applications. Therefore, if you are not sure whether your household is eligible or not, you are advised to apply.

- As of March 2023. The system is subject to change.
- For the details of the municipal resident tax base and the amount of adjusted deduction of the municipal resident tax, please contact the government of the city to which you pay your resident tax.
